PROSPECTUS.

THE great importance of Original Records in the elucidation of the history of any district is every day becoming more widely known and more generally appreciated. Two difficulties, however, stand in the way of their being as much used as they otherwise would be—firstly, the difficulty of access by those whose time for research is limited ; and, secondly, the great cost of having them transcribed. It is to obviate these difficulties, so far as regards the two counties of Lancaster and Chester, that this Society has been founded ; and it is to be hoped that by its means Records heretofore but little known and rarely if ever consulted will be placed within the reach of every reader who may desire to examine them.

The Original Records the Society proposes to print are classified in the above list, and it will be seen, that whilst they range over a wide area they are all of much interest to those who care for county and family history. The Inquisitiones post mortem comprised in Class I. are the most valuable documents for topographical and genealogical purposes that the historian can use. They were taken after the death of the landed proprietors before the Escheator of the county and a local jury (whose names are always given). Besides showing the various lands held by the deceased, and the name and age of his son and heir or next of kin, they very frequently contain abstracts of family settlements and deeds. The Society hopes to be able, in the course of time, to print full abstracts in English of all the Inquisitiones post mortem relating to Lancashire and Cheshire (in number about 4,000), the great value and importance of which cannot be over-estimated.

There is little need to enlarge on the interest that attaches to Wills and Inventories; their value is so universally appreciated, and their interesting character so well known, that the volumes which the Society proposes to print will be sure to find a ready welcome. The Subsidy Rolls are a class of Records which have been very little used, but which contain the names and places of abode of those who in the 14th, 15th, 16th, and 17th centuries were taxed for the king's subsidies, in order to enable him to carry on his wars and to administer the affairs of his kingdom. These rolls give the names of the chief inhabitants throughout the two counties for a long series of years, of which, in many cases, there is no other information.

The other classes of original documents which the Society proposes to have transcribed are all highly illustrative of Local History, and there can be no doubt of the advisability of having them printed.

Great interest is felt at the present time in Parish Registers, and the Society hopes to be able to make arrangements for the printing in full of several of the earlier and more important ones. By printing the entries exactly as they stand, much valuable information relating to Local Families will be brought to light.

Each Volume will be, as far as possible, complete in itself, and will be fully indexed.

An Introductory Preface will be written by the Editor of each Volume, and occasional brief notes will be appended at his discretion. It is, however, not proposed to annotate the text to any great extent.

Two Volumes will be issued, if possible, each year. No copies will be sold to Non-members, except at a greatly increased price.

R U L E S .

1.—THAT the Society shall be called the RECORD SOCIETY, and shall have for its object the transcribing and publishing of Original Documents relating to the counties of Lancaster and Chester.

2.—That the affairs of the Society shall be governed by a Council, consisting of a President and twelve Members, the former of whom shall be annually elected by the Council.

3.—That three Members of the Council shall form a quorum.

6.—That an Annual Meeting of the Society shall be held in the month of July, of which due notice shall be sent to all the Members. At this meeting a Report of the work of the Society, with a Statement of the Income and Expenditure, shall be presented. These shall be annually published, together with a List of Members and the Rules of the Society.

7.—That so long as the funds of the Society permit, two volumes at least shall be issued to the Members in each year.

8.—That no copies of the publications of the Society shall be sold to non-members, except at an increased price to be fixed by the Council.

9.—That no payment shall be made to any person for editing any work for the Society, but that the Editor of each volume shall be entitled to twenty copies of the work so edited by him.

10.—That the Treasurer's accounts shall be audited by two Members of the Society, who shall be elected at the Annual Meeting.

11.—No alteration shall be made in any of the above Rules except at the Annual General Meeting. Notice of any proposed alterations must be sent to the Secretary a month before such General Meeting.

12.—That a Meeting of the Council of the Society shall be called by the Secretary at least once in every three months.

The Annual Subscription of £1. 1s., entitling the Members to all the Volumes issued for that year, may be paid to the Hon. Treasurer, or to the credit of the Society at their Bankers, the Manchester and Liverpool District Banking Company, at any of their branches.

REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1878-9.

IN presenting the first Annual Report of the Society, the Council have much pleasure in congratulating the Members upon the success which has attended its formation. The names of 225 Members have already been received, and it is confidently hoped that with a little exertion on the part of the present Members this list may be increased to 350 or 400, a number which will enable the Council to print more Volumes in each year, and to have more Records examined and copied.

Whilst apologising for the delay that has occurred in issuing the first volume of the Society's publications, the Council trust that it will not occur in the future, and that each year's volumes will be delivered in that year. The first volume for the year 1878-9 is now ready, and the second will, if possible, be published by the end of the year; the third volume—the first for 1879-80—is already partly printed.

As their first volume, the Council selected to print the Surveys of the Churches in Lancashire and Cheshire made in the years 1649 to 1655. The general contents of the volume are shown by the title:—

LANCASHIRE AND CHESHIRE CHURCH SURVEYS,
1649—1655. In two parts—

Part I. Parochial Surveys of Lancashire.

Part II. Surveys of the Lands, &c., of the Bishop and Dean and Chapter of Chester, and of the Warden and Fellows of the Collegiate Church of Manchester.

Now first printed from the original MSS. in the Record Office and in the Lambeth Palace Library. Edited by Lieut.-Col. Henry Fishwick, F.S.A.

The information given in this volume is of an unusually interesting character, for with apparently only one exception there is not a parish or township in Lancashire which is not referred to and of which an account more or less full is not given. By virtue of an Act of Parliament passed on the 8th of June, 1649, entitled "An Act for the Providing Maintenance of preaching Ministers, and other pious uses," Commissioners were appointed in each county to report upon the state of each parish, and to forward their reports to London.

The subjects upon which they were to collect information were as follows:—"The number of parsonages, vicarages, churches, chapels, or other ecclesiastical benefices; the yearly value of each of them; the name of the incumbent, proprietor, or possessor; the name of the person who supplied the cure, and what his salary was; the number of chapels belonging to each parish church, and their situation; what chapels it was advisable to detach from their parish churches and annex to other parishes; and where it was needful to erect new churches and divide parishes."

The Lancashire Commission is dated March 29, 1650, and the first meeting was held at Manchester on June 19th following. The Inquisition or inquiry was taken before a local Jury of men of good standing and position, whose names are given, and before whom witnesses were brought and examined. The Lancashire Commissioners, who were twenty-five in number, held altogether sixteen Inquisitions, three of which were taken at Manchester, six at Wigan, three at Lancaster, three at Preston, and one at Blackburn. The High Sheriff of the County was authorized to cause "honest and lawfull men" to appear before them, "by whom the truth may be best known and inquired of."

As the Editor remarks in the Introduction: "The Commissioners for Lancashire were men of undoubted position in the county, as for the most part were those who were called upon to give evidence upon oath, and their testimony as to facts must be accepted; but perhaps where the evidence is given merely as a matter of opinion, some allowance should be made for the strong party feeling existing, and the statement taken cum grano salis."

The result of the Survey may be summed up as follows: "There were in Lancashire in 1650, 63 parish churches and 118 chapels, of which no less than 38 were without minister, chiefly for want of 'maintenance.' Many of the parishes were very large, and the Commissioners wisely recommended their subdivision; whilst some of the chapels were so far from their mother-church that it was thought desirable that they should become parish churches. In either case the proposed new boundaries were clearly defined, and, in many instances, the names of the householders in the district are given; thus furnishing valuable genealogical evidence not to be found elsewhere. The name of the minister of each church or chapel is always recorded, and as a rule an opinion follows as to his fitness or otherwise for the office he holds."

In the Introduction Col. Fishwick has printed in a tabular form the complete list of all the clergy mentioned in the return, together with lists of those who signed "the Harmonious Consent" in 1648, and "the Agreement of the People" in 1649.

Most unfortunately the returns for the Cheshire parishes are not now extant, and no transcripts or extracts of them are known. The Survey of the lands of the Bishop and the Dean and Chapter of Chester contains much valuable information, as all the livings in their respective gifts are mentioned, some of which are in Wales and Yorkshire.

By the death of Canon Raines, who was one of the Vice-Presidents, the Council has sustained a heavy loss, which it will be very difficult to replace. His most valuable Lancashire MSS. were bequeathed to the Chetham Library, and will be enduring monuments of his zeal, industry, and painstaking research. His place on the Council has been filled by the election of William Beamont, Esq., of Warrington, an appointment which the Council feel confident will be hailed with satisfaction by every member of the Society. The Worshipful George Little, Q.C., Vice-Chancellor of the County Palatine of Lancaster, who takes much interest in the work of the Society and the objects for which it was established, has also joined the Council as a Vice-President.

The following works have been suggested to the Council for publication, and arrangements are in progress by which it is hoped that the majority of them may appear in the course of a few years :—

“Inquisitions post Mortem relating to Lancashire.” The Stuart Period, 1603 to 1650. Vol. I. edited by J. Paul Rylands, Esq. (In the press.)

MDCCCLXXIX.

INTRODUCTION.

THE Assembly of Divines first met at Westminster on 1st July, 1643, and from it gradually proceeded a system of Presbyterian ecclesiastical polity, to which effect was given by various ordinances of the Houses of Parliament. The "Directory for Public Worship" (which took the place of the Book of Common Prayer) was established by Parliament 3rd January, 1645, and was followed in rapid succession by other ordinances, all having for their object the establishment of the Presbyterian form of worship. Altars, raised communion-tables, images, pictures, organs, and all "superstitious inscriptions," had already been swept away, and nothing now remained except the titles of the clergy, the churches themselves, and their endowments; and against these the energy of the Presbyterian party was concentrated.

On 5th September, 1646, it was ordained by the Lords and Commons that on and after that date the titles of Archbishops and Bishops should be abolished, and that all their possessions should be vested in Thomas Adams, Mayor of the City of London, and certain other trustees, to hold the same of the King. These trustees were empowered to appoint "able persons to survey the premises," and were to take charge of all deeds and charters relating thereto. On 16th November following an order was passed authorizing John Blackwell, Esq., and others to sell the lands and possessions of Bishops and Archbishops. Treasurers and a registrar were appointed; and the vendors were to receive two pence in the pound out of the purchase-money. The fabric, or site of the cathedrals or churches, or burial-grounds, were not to be sold.

For reasons which it would not be difficult to define, the sales were not readily effected, and other ordinances had to be passed for "Security and Encouragement for Purchasers," for "Removing Obstructions," and for "Explanation and better Execution of former Ordinances."¹

In 1649 it was enacted that on and after 29th March of that year the "name, title, dignity, function, and office of Dean, Sub-dean, Dean and Chapter," and all other titles and offices belonging to any college or collegiate church in England and Wales, should be abolished; and that all lands or other possessions which then or within ten years before the beginning of the then Parliament, of right belonging to any such church dignitary, should be vested in certain trustees, who were to sell the same, after having first had a survey taken of them. Upon some of the lands, &c. of the Deans and Chapters a sum of £300,000 was to be borrowed. On 25th June following an ordinance was passed for "the more speedy sale" of the Dean and Chapter lands, &c., and for the "present raising of monies for the transporting of troops now in readiness for the relief of Ireland." On 4th May, 1654, the "Lord Protector, with the advice of his Council," ordained that over and above the £300,000 appointed to be borrowed upon the security of the Act for the Sale of lands, &c., of Church Dignitaries, and also over and above £120,000 borrowed on the like security, a further sum of £20,000 should be raised.

Under these Acts the Surveys forming Part II. of this volume were made.

On 8th June, 1649, an Act of Parliament was passed, entitled "An Act for the Providing Maintenance of preaching Ministers, and other pious use"; and the trustees named in this Act were by authority of Parliament ordered to stand seized of all parsonages, tithes, oblations, obventions, &c., until 24th June, 1650, upon trust to pay and supply out of the rents and issues for the maintenance of preaching ministers, the advancement of learning, and other pious uses, such augmentations and allowances as should be made by Parliament. On 20th December, 1649, it was ordered that the Lords Commissioners for the Great Seal of England do prepare and present to the House a commission (in accordance with the last-named Act) "for the discovery of the value of the several livings in the respective counties, and that the Members of the House do present names of fit persons to be commissioners for the purpose with all speed."

The latter portion of the order not having been complied with, on the 1st February following (1650) the Members were ordered within seven days to send up the names of commissioners; on the 8th of the same month a commission was presented to the House, but, being in Latin, it was rejected; another was prepared in English, and being approved, was at once transmitted to the various counties in England, addressed to the persons who had been nominated as commissioners by the Members of Parliament; and where none had been so chosen, then to such as were "named Commissioners for their county for the last monthly assessment."

The Lancashire Commission is dated 29th March, 1650; the first Inquisition being held at Manchester, 17th June following.

The subjects upon which they were to collect information were as follows:—The number of parsonages, vicarages, churches, chapels, or other ecclesiastical benefices; the yearly value of each of them; the name of the incumbent, proprietor, or possessor; the name of the person who supplied the cure, and what his salary was; the number of chapels belonging to each parish church, and their situation; what chapels it was advisable to detach from their parish churches and annex to other parishes; and where it was needful to erect new churches and divide parishes.

Any five of the Commissioners were to fix a time and place to meet, and the High Sheriff was to cause to appear before them "honest and lawfull men, by whom the truth may be best known and inquired of."

The Commissioners for Lancashire were men of undoubted position in the county, as for the most part were those who were called upon to give evidence upon oath, and their testimony as to facts must be accepted ; but perhaps where the evidence is given merely as a matter of opinion, some allowance should be made for the strong party feeling existing, and the statement taken cum grano salis. The Commission sat sixteen times, holding three Inquisitions at Manchester, six at Wigan, three at Lancaster, three at Preston, and one at Blackburn. The Commissioners appear to have divided the work, one half of their number taking Manchester and Wigan, and the other half Preston, Lancaster, and Blackburn.

The Survey shows that there were in Lancashire in 1650 63¹ parish churches and 118 chapels, of which no less than 38 were without minister, chiefly for want of "maintenance." Many of the parishes were very large, and the Commissioners wisely recommended their subdivision ; whilst some of the chapels were so far from their mother-church that it was thought desirable that they should become parish churches : in either case the proposed new boundaries were clearly defined, and, in many instances, the names of the householders in the district are given ; thus furnishing valuable genealogical evidence not to be found elsewhere.

The name of the minister of each church or chapel is always recorded, and as a rule an opinion follows as to his fitness or otherwise for the office he holds.

This list of ministers, compared with the signatures to "The Harmonious Consent of the Ministers of Lancaster"² and "The Paper called the Agreement of the People,"³ furnishes such a complete catalogue of the clergy of the county, that no apology is required for reproducing them here :—

¹ With North Meols there were 64 parish churches. North Meols is not mentioned in the Survey.

² "The Harmonious Consent of the Ministers of the Province within the County Palatine of Lancaster with their Brethren the Ministers of the Province of London, in their late Testimonie to the Truth of Jesus Christ and to our solemn League and Covenant." London. 1648.

³ "The Paper called the Agreement of the People taken into consideration, and the lawfulness of subscription to it examined and resolved in the negative by the Ministers of Christ in the Province of Lancaster. London. 1649." Both these are very scarce tracts.

The original manuscripts of the Parochial Surveys, as returned by the Commissioners for the county of Lancaster, are preserved at the Record Office. The returns for the county of Chester have not been preserved, and no copies are known to be in existence.

In the Lambeth Palace library are 24 large and unwieldy volumes, consisting for the most part of office copies of these Surveys, which were made shortly after the originals. Volume xi. contains the Lancashire parochial Surveys. Some portions of the MS. at the Record Office are in such a dilapidated condition as to be almost undecipherable. The text of the present volume (Part I.) is taken from the original MS., and collated with the copy at Lambeth, the additions or corrections contained in the latter being always printed in brackets [].

Part II., "Survey of Lands, &c., of the Bishop of Chester, &c.," is printed entirely from the Lambeth MSS. (the original having perished), except p. 223 to p. 245, which is from a copy in the British Museum (Additional MSS.).

In preparing for the press this, the first volume of the Record Society, I have endeavoured to set what I consider a good example to all future editors, and have resisted the temptation to annotate and illustrate, more than was absolutely required, knowing that the object of the Society is to publish Records, and that every unnecessary note will, to a certain degree, be a departure from the course which the Council have wisely decided to follow. As the volume contains upwards of seventeen hundred names of persons, the shortest biographical notes would have added very much to its bulk. For ready reference Christian and surnames are printed in italics ; and it may be well here to explain that, to save the expense of special new type, the marks of abbreviation in words printed in italics are omitted : thus Robto is printed Robto. The "Church Surveys of Lancashire and Cheshire" are now first printed in their entirety ; but it is but fair to the memory of one whose name will always be honoured by the members of the Record Society, to add that the late Canon Raines, in his Notitia Cestriensis, has quoted extensively from the Lambeth MSS. in his foot-notes : these notes are scattered throughout four volumes (which are now very scarce), and will in no way lessen the value of the present work.

In the Record Office are 40 Deeds of Bargains and Sales of Church Lands in Lancashire and Cheshire, from 1649—1658. Extracts from these will form a portion of some future volume of the Record Society.

And wee further p^rsent that there is a Chappell in the said towne of Rufford, (where one¹) Maister Woods, a godly Minister well quallified and conformable to the State and Governement, doth (officiate¹) (the¹) cure, but hath noe other sallery save the benevolence of his auditorytie and the Inhabitants there, w^{ch} (Chappell is wthin¹) the said pⁱshe of Croston, distant from the said pⁱshe Church of Croston three myles three quarters (and twelve¹) roodes, w^{ch} wee hould needefull and p^rsent necessary to be made into a pⁱshe, in respect the (waters lying betwixt¹) the said towne of Rufford and the said pⁱshe of Croston are for the most p^te all the winter tyme not (passable¹). (And wee¹) also p^rsent and find it needful and necessary that there be a new pⁱshe Church built at the (three Lane ends in¹) Tarleton, where one of those lane ends there is called the Blackegate Lane end, where a Church is now in building for the Inhabitants of Tarleton, Holmes, and Sollome, w^{ch} wee p^rsent needfull to bee made a pⁱshe Church, and (will bee) above foure myles distant from the said pⁱshe Church of Croston; and especially in regard that the number of p^rsons wthin Tarletonn, Solome [Sollom], and Holmes to bee of that Congrega^cõn are foure hundred thirty one in Number, and the number of ffamilyes there are eighty seaven. And wee doe alsoe p^rsent that it is fitt that the Chappell in Beconsall should bee made a pⁱshe Church, beinge above two statute myles from the place where the said new Church is in Buildinge, and many of the Inhabitants of Hesketh are above foure myles from the said new Church in buildinge wthin Tarleton; And also for that there is a greate river called Astlon [Astlan²], over w^{ch} the Inhabitants of the said townes of Tarleton, Holmes, Sollome, Hesketh, and Beconsall cannot passe vnto Croston Church wthout a boate, neither can they passe wth a boate in some

And wee likewise p̄sent and thinke it very needfull and necessary that a newe Church bee built in Mawdesley neare adiacent (to a place¹) there called the foure lane ends (whereof one of the lane ends is called Gorsy Lane), for the vse of the (Inhītants¹) wthin the said townes of Mawdesley and Bispham, and pt of the Inhabitants of Wrightington hereafter mençoned, who are very populous and doe consist of one hundred and twelve ffamylies and of ffive hundred and fourteene p̄sons, who for the most pte all the winter tyme are debarrd from their said Ancient pishe Church of Croston, and from all other Churches and Chapells wthin the Compasse of foure myles by the Current and greatnes of the rivers Duglas, Yarrowe, and sidbrooke [Syd Brook], in w^{ch} said place, being the middle pte and Centry² of the vtmost Inhabitants of both the said Townes of Mawdesley and Bispham and those of Wrightington afforesaid, w^{ch} wee p̄sent needfull and necessary to bee made a pishe, the same townes consistinge of foure myles and a halfe in length and foure myles in breadth. Wee also p̄sent needfull and necessary that all the Inhabitants of both the said townes and pte of Wrightington bee appriated to that said Church to bee new built, the building whereof the Inhabitants of both the said townes and the said pte of Wrightington are most willing to take vpon them, if course may bee taken for preaching & mainteynce there; and wee doe further p̄sent that it is fitt, needfull, and requisite that the several Messuages, tenements, and Cottages in Wrightington, in the County of Lancaster, lying vpon the west or north side of Horrocke Hill, in the severall houldings and occupaçons of (Hugh^t) Southworth, Hugh Charles, Will^m Wrenall, Thomas Eccleston, Henry Eccleston, Robt ffinch, John Hallywell, John Asshton, Nicholas Bimpson and his Mother, Peter Lathom, Myles Moore, Nicholas Southworth, Richard Bannester (both that where he liveth and Ropers house), Will^m Hollands, Hugh Wainwright (and his mothers), and

*John Stopforth*s, who all of them lye nearer the same new intended meetinge place, or to bee a new erected pishe Church, then any other Church or Chappell, And therefore to bee vnyted, appropriated, and annexed to the same pishe of Mawdesley and Bispham; and also wee p̄sent and thinke it convenient and necessarie that the townes of Croston, Bretherton, and Ulneswalton, (the value¹) of the tythes whereof, together wth the Viccarage house and gleabe lands thereunto belonging, with the rents of the tenants, besides fines and Incomes thereof w^{ch} belong to the said viccarage, will extend to aboute one hundred sixtie eight pounds six shillings ten pence, shall remaine and contynue to the pishe of Croston, and not to be divyded and taken from the same in respect of the (convenient¹) and neare adiacencie of them to the said pishe of Croston.

Chorley.² WEE doe also p̄sent that (there is¹) a Chappell wthin the towne of Chorley wthin the County of Lancaster, called Chorley Chappell (or Chorley¹) Church, scituate in the Middle pte of the said towne of Chorley, and is pcell of and belonging to the (said parish¹) Church of Croston; A Cottage and halfe a roode land of gleabe lands or thereabouts in Chorley afforesaid unto belonging, worth two shillings p añ; And wee doe find there was a donative of (two hundred pounds¹) given by one M^r Henry Bannester, late of Hackney, deceased, and another donative of ten pounds given by Rauffe Leaver, of Chorley, the intrest and proffitts thereof to goe towards the mainteynce of a preaching Minister at Chorley afforesaid. And wee doe p̄sent that wth the said donatives there is certaine lands purchased w^{ch} lye in Clitheroe, in the County of Lancaster, to the yearely value of ten pounds, And that the yearely proffitts of the said lands goe to the Minister of Chorley as pt of his sallery, w^{ch} for the space of one halffe yeare last past hath beene and yet is diteyned by Rauffe Leaver and Richard Haydock of Chorley afforesaid, yeoman, two of the ffeoffees named in the deeds of the afforesaid lands lyinge in

And wee doe further p^sent that the said Church or Chappell of Chorley is remote full sixe myles from the said pish Church of Croston, and from any other Church foure myles, and from the nearest Chappell two myles. And wee present fitt that the same towne of Chorley should bee made a pishe, And that Ridges tenement, Widdowe Charnocks, Thomas Halesworths, James Brindles' Smethurst house, Thomas Simpsons, Breers house of the Tenter Bancke, Henry Holmes, Henry Warings, Widowe Crostons, Richard Crostons, Walton's house, Thurstan Breers, Widow Barons (all wthin Heath Charnocke); And that Thomas Warings of Barkehouse, Will^m

And wee doe further p^sent that the viccarage, gleabelands, tenements, rents, tyth Corne, and other Mixt tyths wthin the severall townes and hamells of Croston Parishe, in the afforesaid p^sentm^{ts} men^coned and lately belonginge to M^r James Hyott, Viccar of Croston afforesaid, wthin the townes of Croston, Rufford, Bretherton, Ulveswalton, Tarleton, Hesketh Bancke, and Chorley, wth the privy tyths of Mawdesley and Bispham, and the before men^coned rent of thirteene pounds six shillings and eight pence reserved vpon the before men^coned lease to the said James Earle of Derby made by the said M^r Hyet, amounteth to the some of three hundred fiftie two pounds thirteene shillings six pence, out of w^{ch} some the said James Hyett, Rector, standeth charged wth the yearely paym^t of the anuall rent of ffifty two pounds foure shillings and three pence, vidz^t to the receiver of the Revenewe of the Dutchy of lancaster the yearelie some of fforty nyne pounds ten shillings eleaven pence, and to the Minister officiating, the Cure at Chorley Church or Chappell, the yearely some or rent of ffifty three shillings fourpence, w^{ch} said rents or yearely paym^{ts} issue furth of the whole tyths sperituall and Ecclesiasticall proffitts of Croston pishe, the w^{ch} rent or yearely payments deducted furth of the afforesaid some of three hundred fifty two pounds thirteene shillings six pence, the remainder over will be the some three hundred pounds nyne shillings and three pence; And that the tyth Corne of Mawdesley and Bispham, demised as afforesaid to the said James Earle of Derby, And for the said Earles delinquency sequestred to and for the vse of the State, amounteth to the some of threescore pounds, out of w^{ch} the said yearelie rent of thirteene pounds six shillings eight pence being

THE tenth of Janury, in the 26th yeare of Hen. 8^o [1535], the Abbott and Convent of the late Surrendred and dissolved Monastery of Vale Royall, in the County of Chester, did demise unto S^r Anthony ffitzherbert, knight, and to Thomas ffitzharbert, and John ffitzharbert, and John ffitzharbert, his sonnes, the Rectory and Parsonage of Castleton, cū ptiñ with all Gleabe, and the third part to the Viccar excepted and reserved, Habend^r for Seaventy yeares then next followinge, payeing to the said Abbott, &c. Eleaven pounds at St. John Baptist and Martelmas, by equall porçons.

8^o Jan., 38^o Hen. 8^o [1547], the said Rectory and Advowson was granted by the King to John, then Bushopp of Chester, and his Successors for ever; And the said Bushopp, by his lease beareing date 3^o Aprilis, 5^o Edward 6^o, did graunt to George Wilmesley, then of Chester, C^{tre}, and Chauncellor to the said Bushopp, the Advowson of the Viccaridge of the said Parish Church of Castleton untill the end of the said Seaventy yeares, As often as it should be void, And alsoe the said Rectory and parsonage cū ptiñ (the third part of the said Rectory cū ptiñ alwaies reserued to the Viccar) and alsoe the Advowson, Habend to Mr Wilmesley immediately from the day of the determinacion of the aforesaid lease made unto the said Anthony ffitzharbert for Nynety Nyne yeares then next following, The presentacon of the Viccar, dureing the said Nynety Nyne yeares alsoe graunted to Mr Wilmesley payeing Eleaven Pounds p añ Att the aforesaid ffeasts; Mr Walmesley is to repaire the Chancell, and the Bushopp is to pay all annuall Rents, tenthes, first fruites, subsidies, benevolence Contribucons, and all oþher Charges, whatsoever they be.

The Viccar of Castleton hath part of the Gleabe and the third part of the Tythes of Corne, wooll, and lambe, and of lead Ore which is lately recovered by lawe; But noe tyth hay.

Mr Edward Pegg, of Ashburne in the County of Darby [Derby], and Mr Thulston Browne, of Hilsdale by Butterson, in the County of Stafford, neere Leeke, have now the lease, And they have two parts of all the Tythes, devided into three parts, But noe tyth hay, And they have for the tyth hay a rate, and hold part of the Gleabe.

Mr Pegg had above Seaven Stone of Wooll the last yeare for his part, and five pound for tythe lambes. The Bishoppes Rent is graunted to Edall, a Chappell of Ease in the parrish of Castleton, where Mr Wright is Minister, thirty three shillings tenn pence p añ, And is paid to the King out of the Tythes: the two partes of the Rectory payements Included is Eighty Pounds p añ. The Inhabitants of Edall, in the Parrish of Castleton, pay neither Tyth Corne nor hay; but a rate tythe (as they Conceive it) about forty shillings p añ. The now Minister of Castleton, Mr Samuell Cryer, of Glassupp [Glossop], hath noe tythe ore; But it is recoverable.

Mr Pegg did give Mr Browne this yeare five pounds for his part of Tythe Ore.

The Viccaridge is only out of lease, And the Viccaridge howse out of Repaire. Lawrence Castle, late Viccar, lived in the Viccaridge about two yeares since.

The Bushopp formerly presented the Viccar by the Consent of the Lessees, But the lessees had the power.

Wee conceive the said Lessees ought to see the Viccaridge howse left in repaire in respect they had the Viccaridge in lease.

In most of theise places the Tennants doe every yeere sett forth their Tythe Corne, but in some of them they doe not.

Theise Towneshippes that sett forth their tyth Corne, wee Conceive, are such as hold their Tyth by lease.

There is a Viccarridge howse belonging to the Rectory, with a little backside and some few Cottages, but not worth fforty shillings p añ.

The Viccar hath alsoe tenn pounds p añ paid him by the Lessee.

The whole Rectory of Boulton, if it were out of lease, were worth p añ 200^{li}, besides the Rent to the Bishopp and the Tenn pounds to ye Viccar.

There is two honest Ministers there, who have order from the Comittee of Plunder'd Ministers for one hundred pounds p añ out of the Rectory and Bishoppes Rent of Boulton, and out of the Bishoppes Rent in Childwell.

The Towne of greate Boulton paieth Tythe hay in kynde to the Lessee.

The Mannor of Tytheing, the Easter Rowle is as followeth: Every howse one penny, every Garden one penny, one or more henns ob,¹ If they have any ground (except greate Boulton) one penny, every Cowe and Calfe 1^d ob, every sheepe with wooll on his backe ob, every ffarrow Cowe one penny, every fole one penny, every swarme of Bees one penny, every sheepe laid to scowre in the winter, which is to be paid by the occupier of the ground where the sheepe lye ob.

We find in Mr Andertons booke a copy of which things were taken by Mr Harper, Viccar of Boulton. These things were leased out; viz^t, James Anderton, by writing dated the 17^o August, 42 Eliz. But noe lease made nor writeing. James Anderton promised a lease to Hugh ffoster for his Tennement pcell of the Gleabe for One and Twenty yeares from May 1599, But now was made only a note under Mr Andertons hand.

The Rectory leased to M^r Dryfeild was let fferty yeares since for 100^{li} p añ, now it is worth one hundred and ffifty pounds p añ, the Bishopps rent included; the Coppyholders fferty Acres is now worth six shillings eight pence p Acre upon the Racke, they pay but thirteene shillings tenn pence farthing rent p añ; And small ffynes as followeth:

Note, that soe many Acres as every man had in the Coñon ffeild he hath assigned him out of the fforrest now inclosed to himselfe in lieu of his Coñon.

By the Custome upon every alienaçon or discent for a Messuage there is six shillings paid to the ffarmer of the Rectory.

ffor a ffyne for a Cottage three shillings, ffor an Acre of land eightpence; And every widdowe, dureing her widdowhood and life, hath the thirds of the Coppyhoulds which her husband enioyed.

One of the decrees about Galtree [Galtres] fforrest was made in the Excheq^r 19^o Novembris, vj^{to} Caroli [1630], S^r Robert Heath then Attorney gen^lall.

By the said decree the Townshipp of Easingwold [Easingwold] and Huby, there was likewise alowed all those severall parcells of wast ground, part of the Demeasnes of Waste belonging to those Manno^{rs} As the same were pricked and lyned out in the plott or Mappe of the Demeasnes of Easingwould [Easingwold] and Hubie [Huby], according to the bounds thereof: That is to say, to the Townshipp of Easingwould [Easingwold] one thousand seaven hundred seaventy six Acres, and to the Townshipp of Huby Eight hundred eighty eight acres, which said respective allottments were made and assigned out by direction of the said Coiers with assent of the better sorte of the Tennants and Inhabitants of the said Townships, As by the said former Decree (expressing the Particular meats and boundages thereof) at large appeareth, under the yeerely Rent reserued to his Ma^{tie} of Twenty Shillings: That is to say, of the Townshipp of Easingwould [Easingwold] thirteene shillings foure pence And of Huby six shillings eight pence.

And whereas in the allottments formerly assigned to the Townshipp of Easingwould [Easingwold], Huby, and Sutton, there were noe provision made by the former Submissions for the respective apporçoning of those allottments how much thereof should be enioyed with an Oxgange of land; How much with Meadow and pasture, which is held under a distinct rent from the Oxgange; And how much the Tennants and Cottages unto which noe land belongeth.

Thereupon for preventing of future questions and Inconueniences the said Commissioners did thincke fit and soe did order, with assent and approbation of the better sort of the Tennants of the said Townships; That one full third part of the allottments in parts to be devided both in quantity and quallity should be conveniently allotted and sett out for the Tenements and Cottages within the said Townships in equall proporçons respectively; And ye same to be for ever enioyed therewith accordingly; And that the other two parts be layed out and enioyed, with the auncient Oxganges, lands, pastures, and meadowe grownds belonging to the said Townships of Huby and Sutton, only without any distinguishing of Cōmons Clayme or alteraçon of proporçon whatsoever. There appeareth small difference in quantity betweene the said Oxganges and Meadowe grounds belonging to the said Townships. And for as much as the Oxeganges of land and meadowe ground belonging to the Towneshipp of Easingwold [Easingwold] were two distinct houldings and of much different quantities, It was therefore ordered by the said Comissioners, with the assent aforesaid, That the Oxeganges of land belonging to Easingwold [Easingwold] should hould and enioye two parts of the respective allottments in three parts to be devided assigned out of the Towneshippes aforesaid, out of which they should allowe to every acre of Meadow which is houlden by a distinct Rent from the saide Oxeganges, One full third part as much both in quantity and quallity as shall be proportionably upon Devision thereof, to every acre of Oxeganges lands and noe more. And those agreements to be respectively obserued and performed According to the true intent and meaneing thereof without any alteraçon or by respect w^tsoever.

The Lord Scroope was by the said Lease to keepe in repaire the Chauncell of the Parish Church, Togeather with ye Barnes, Stables, and other Edifices belonging to the saide Rectory.

Since this was ingrosed the Lease was brought us, which beares date the 4^o Dec., 9^o Car. [1633]. The saide Countesse, 25^o July, 11^o Car.
